Credit Union Raises Funds at Bowl-A-Thon

Pittsburgh, PA – Employees of Clearview Federal Credit Union helped raise over $8,700 for the Pennsylvania Credit Union Foundation at Beaver Valley Chapter of Credit Unions' annual Bowl-A-Thon event which was recently held in Beaver, Pa.

Tim Dietz, Clearview's Director of Lending, placed first in individual total pins; Jamie Karwoski, Clearview's Director of Branch Services, placed first in the individual money pledged; and Vince Setnar, Clearview's Executive Vice President, placed second in the individual money pledged. There were a total of 96 bowlers at Sims Bowling Lanes in Beaver Falls, Pa., representing the different credit unions in the Beaver Valley area.

The Pennsylvania Credit Union Foundation was formed in 1996 to benefit consumers and credit unions. The Foundation is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization with a main purpose of providing individuals, credit unions and their communities with resources to stimulate socio-economic growth.

The Beaver Valley Chapter of Credit Unions is comprised of credit unions located in Beaver County, Pa., and supports organizations that benefit the credit union movement.

Clearview Federal Credit Union serves approximately 76,907 members, with reported assets valued at more than $594 million as of January 2009. Membership in Clearview is open to individuals who live, work, worship, attend school or volunteer in the Southwestern Pennsylvania community, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland counties. Membership is also open to immediate family members of current Clearview members. Visit www.clearviewfcu.org for more information. Clearview Federal Credit Union is federally insured by the National Credit Union Administration and is an Equal Housing Lender.
