Clearview Federal Credit Union Sponsors First-Ever Financial Education Fair in SW Pennsylvania

When: Saturday, June 2, 2007
WHERE: David L. Lawrence Convention Center
TIME: 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM
Free and open to the public

PITTSBURGH, PA - The Financial Education Consortium of Southwestern Pennsylvania will present seminars and informational booths on financial literacy at the upcoming Financial Education Fair. As one of the event's premier sponsors, Clearview Federal Credit Union is proud to be a part of this valuable service to the community.

Given decreasing real income (income adjusted for inflation) and the recent rise in foreclosure rates, the need for clear information on financial matters is particularly pressing.

The Financial Education Consortium will hold 8 seminars throughout the day and the topics for discussion will focus on financial management issues like: Bankruptcy and Foreclosure Prevention, Found a Home? Now Learn How to Avoid a Bad Loan, From Debt to Wealth: How to Save $1 Million, Know your Credit and ID Theft, and Youth Financial Literacy, as well as other essential financial subjects.

Financial Education Consortium members such as the PA Department of Financial Education, the YWCA Asset Development Initiative, and the Butler County Emergency Relief Initiative of the United Way, along with approximately 30 other organizations will be on hand at information tables to share the details of their financial education programs.

Chaired by Esther Bush, President & CEO of the Urban League of Pittsburgh, the event will also unveil a new Web Site for residents of western Pennsylvania interested in taking control of their finances. Demonstrations of the new site, www.YouControlYourMoney.org, will be ongoing from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

The event has been sponsored by members of the Financial Education Consortium, Clearview Federal Credit Union and several other financial institutions.

Clearview Federal Credit Union serves approximately 74,000 members, with reported assets valued at more than $580 million as of December 2006. Membership in Clearview is open to individuals who live, work, worship, attend school or volunteer in the southwestern Pennsylvania community, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland counties. Membership is also open to immediate family members of current Clearview members. Visit www.clearviewfcu.org for more information. Clearview Federal Credit Union is federally insured by the National Credit Union Administration and is an Equal Housing Lender.
