RMU Island Sports Center's Collegiate Arena to Become Clearview Arena

Multi-year partnership allows local credit union naming rights to one of facility's ice arenas

MOON TOWNSHIP, PA – Robert Morris University's Island Sports Center (ISC) has changed the name of its Collegiate Arena to Clearview Arena as part of a new, multi-year partnership between the sports and fitness facility and Clearview Federal Credit Union. The ice arena is the current site for Robert Morris University's (RMU) Division I men's and women's hockey games, local and regional youth hockey contests and tournaments, figure skating special events, select Pittsburgh Penguins team practices, and more.

"We are very pleased that Clearview Federal Credit Union has become a valued corporate partner of the RMU Island Sports Center," said Rick Orienza, executive director of the Robert Morris University Island Sports Center. "We are looking forward to forging a successful, mutually-beneficial relationship with Clearview in the coming years."

"We are excited to partner with the Robert Morris University Island Sports Center," said Ralph Canterbury, vice president of marketing with Clearview Federal Credit Union. "This opportunity allows Clearview to support Robert Morris University and the many different sporting and community events held at the Island Sports Center."

"Robert Morris University Island Sports Center has a record of success, an outstanding reputation, and incredible involvement within our community, making them an ideal partner for Clearview," said Clearview President Mark S. Brennan.

The Robert Morris University Island Sports Center is the region's premier sports and recreation destination, located just nine miles from downtown Pittsburgh on Neville Island. Open to the public year-round, the 32-acre state-of-the-art center is committed to providing the highest quality facilities, training, events, services and family entertainment for guests of all ages.
