CLEARVIEW FCU ANNOUNCES NEW COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Moon Township, PA— Clearview Federal Credit Union is proud to announce that they will be offering a new community service award this year. The Joseph C. Cirelli Community Service Award will honor an individual who provides outstanding volunteer service to their community.

Clearview will make a $2,500 donation to a charity of the winner's choice, in recognition of their efforts. The award is only payable to a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

The Joseph C. Cirelli Community Service award is named in honor of Joseph C. Cirelli, former President and CEO of Clearview Federal Credit Union, who served the Credit Union for a 35-year tenure, and his ongoing support of volunteer efforts.

The winner of the award need not be a member of Clearview, but they must be nominated by a member. Clearview members are also encouraged to nominate themselves to raise funds for their charity.

For an application and more information, visit www.clearviewfcu.org, call 1-800-926-0003 or stop into any Clearview branch.

Clearview Federal Credit Union serves approximately 76,000 members, with reported assets valued at nearly $650 million as of the end of the first quarter, 2008. Membership in Clearview is open to individuals who live, work, worship, attend school or volunteer in the Southwestern Pennsylvania community, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland counties. Membership is also open to immediate family members of current Clearview members. Visit www.clearviewfcu.org for more information. Clearview Federal Credit Union is federally insured by the National Credit Union Administration and is an Equal Housing Lender.
