Credit Union Presents Free “Women In Investing” Seminar

Pittsburgh, PA—Clearview® Federal Credit Union recently presented a free seminar titled “Women in Investing” at the Sewickley Café in Sewickley, PA hosted by MEMBERS Financial Services. Attendees of the seminar enjoyed hors d'oeuvres while Cindi Hill, Retirement Plan Consultant from MEMBERS Insurance and Investments, and Costas Grekis, Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor from MEMBERS Financial Services, spoke on several topics.

The sold out seminar focused on the importance of women taking control of their own financial future through investing, and covered investment principles and opportunities such as asset allocation, investor behavior, mutual funds and annuities. The speakers also commented on the current economic environment, and how to invest accordingly.

Members of the capacity crowd of attendees learned new information that will help them make better decisions regarding investing in the future. Many commented on how they found the seminar to be very educational and enjoyable.
