Clearview, Helping Hands Provide 10,000 Meals

Credit union and nonprofit partner to help eight area school districts

Pittsburgh, PA, December 6, 2019...With the help of Clearview Federal Credit Union, Helping Hands of Centerpoint in Monaca, Pa. was able to provide over 10,000 meals and 500 bags to residents in 8 area school districts through the holiday season. Clearview awarded Helping Hands, which assists homeless and food insecure members of the community, $2,500 on behalf of Natalie Shoop, longtime Helping Hands volunteer, and 2019 Joseph C. Cirelli Award winner.

The Joseph C. Cirelli Community Service Award and check were presented to Natalie on Tuesday, November 26 at Clearview’s Moon Township location. With the funds, Helping Hands was able to double their outreach and provide 10,000 meals comprised of 500 bags, each containing over 20 items including breakfasts, lunches, and goodies to those in need in eight area school districts including Aliquippa, Independence, Ambridge, Rochester, Beaver Falls, Freedom, Center, and South Side.
