Clearview Cares makes big impact in Southwestern Pennsylvania

_Clearview donates $100,000+, 7,000+ volunteer hours_

_Pittsburgh, PA, February 20, 2020..._Clearview Federal Credit Union has completed the first year under their “Clearview Cares” program, which gives employees the opportunity to volunteer their time and talent throughout Southwestern Pennsylvania. Through their efforts, over 300 Clearview staff volunteered more than 7,500 hours to 250+ charitable organizations. In addition to volunteer hours, Clearview gave over $100,000 in sponsorship donations, assisting more than 400 nonprofit organizations throughout the year.

Through the Clearview Cares program, Clearview was able to benefit people throughout Southwestern Pennsylvania as well as East Liverpool, Ohio. Highlights include:

- Awarded $15,000 in scholarships to area students
- Educated over 6,500 students in the region on financial literacy
- Delivered over 150 dinners through Thanksgiving Dinner Basket Program
- Donated $24,000 in year-end holiday giving
- Collected and donated pet supply items to 10 local animal shelters
- Sent supplies, treats, and cards to U.S. troops abroad
- Donated over 1,000 items for organizations that support disadvantaged individuals

Clearview FCU provides a strong volunteer workforce dedicated to improving the communities in which individuals live, work, and raise families. The Clearview Cares program aims to benefit more organizations and members of the Pittsburgh region in 2020.
