Clearview helps local food pantry hit by vandalism
Clearview helps Faith Restorations with $2,000 donation

Pittsburgh, PA, March 16, 2020, (clearviewfcu.org)…Clearview Federal Credit Union continues its service to the community and furthers the Clearview Cares initiative by donating $2,000 to Faith Restorations in light of recent vandalism.

The Beaver County food pantry was hit by vandals who destroyed many of the electronic tools used to help meet its mission in serving those in need, especially veterans, with food resources. The incident occurred on February 29, 2020. Clearview CEO, Ron Celaschi, and members of the Clearview team presented the $2,000 donation to representatives of Faith Restorations on Monday, March 9, 2020.
