

Statement of Commitment to Our Members and to Our Community

At Clearview, we're committed to helping our members enjoy better lives.

We strive to do so by matching them with solutions that meet their financial needs. Our commitment extends beyond the offerings on our website or within our financial centers; it branches to the relationships we foster between our members and staff, the hours we pour into giving back to those in need, and the steadfast dedication we place on impacting the lives of our members and our community from top to bottom.

Our promise to our members:

- We'll always bring you the most enjoyable interactions possible whenever and wherever you visit us.
- We'll talk to you like people, not like a regular financial institution. No confusing jargon, complicated explanations, or incredible amounts of fine print.
- We'll help you navigate the sometimes confusing world of finances through helpful emails, blog articles, educational events and seminars, and more.

At the end of the day, you are what makes Clearview special. We're here for you.
