Clearview gives back during the month of December

Pittsburgh, PA, December 20, 2018.....(clearviewfcu.org) Clearview Federal Credit Union, a member-based credit union serving 10 southwestern Pennsylvania counties, made donations to a variety of charities throughout the month of December. Those charities included Manna Soup Kitchen, Jubilee Kitchen, Susan G. Komen Greater Pittsburgh, and 96.1 KISS Pittsburgh Stuff-A-Bus.

In honor of their 65th anniversary, Clearview donated 65 hams to Manna Soup Kitchen. The generous donation resulted in every family at Manna Soup Kitchen receiving a ham. Clearview also provided enough hams so that more families could enjoy them during the following week.

On Saturday, December 1st, Clearview held a “Sock It to Me” event, which represented the final two weeks of a sock collection for Jubilee Kitchen. Starting in November and running through December 14th, members, employees, and the community donated socks to Clearview Financial Centers. At the end of the collection period, 1,261 pairs of socks were donated to Jubilee Kitchen.

“We are always striving to build lasting partnerships and make a difference within the community. We have many charities that are important to not only our employees, but also members, so having the ability to make an impact, no matter the size, is very gratifying,” said Ron Celaschi, President and CEO of Clearview.

To round out the holiday giving, Clearview collected 30 toys for the 96.1 KISS Stuff-A-Bus 2018 and made a $600 donation to Susan G. Komen Greater Pittsburgh.

About Susan G. Komen®

Susan G. Komen is the world's largest breast cancer organization, funding more breast cancer research than any other nonprofit outside of the federal government while providing real-time help to those facing the disease. Komen has set a Bold Goal to reduce the current number of breast cancer deaths by 50 percent in the U.S. by 2026. Since its founding in 1982, Komen has funded more than $988 million in research and provided more than $2.2 billion in funding to screening, education, treatment and psychosocial support programs serving millions of people in more than 60 countries worldwide. Komen was founded by Nancy G. Brinker, who promised her sister, Susan G. Komen, that she would end the disease that claimed Suzy's life. That promise has become Komen's promise to all people facing breast cancer. Visit komen.org or call 1-877 GO KOMEN. Connect with us on social at www5.komen.org/social.
