Clearview FCU Partners with RMU Athletics for Giveaway

Moon Township, Pa. — Clearview Federal Credit Union and Robert Morris University (RMU) Athletics are proud to team up during the Colonials Football Season to give away a 32” smart TV at each home game to one lucky RMU student in attendance.

At each game, RMU students who attend are able to submit their name for a drawing that will be held on the field after the first quarter. At the soggy home opener on Saturday, September 8th, Rachel Beck from Allison Park, PA was chosen as the lucky winner. Rachel is a junior at RMU studying Biomedical Engineering. She was shocked when her name was drawn. “I never win anything! This is such a surprise,” Beck said as she was handed her prize by Romo, the Colonials’ Mascot.

Clearview will continue to give away a smart TV at all home games during the 2018-2019 Colonials Football Season. Visit the RMU Athletics website for the full season schedule.

“We’re thrilled to partner up with Clearview, the official financial institution of RMU Athletics, to provide a great experience for RMU students,” said Matt O’Brien, Director of University and Athletic Sponsorships for RMU.

Clearview Federal Credit Union has been in operation since 1953 and serves over 100,000 members, with reported assets valued over $1.2 billion as of July 2018. Membership in Clearview is open to individuals who live, work, worship, volunteer or attend school in the Southwestern Pennsylvania community, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland counties.
