Clearview helps provide troops a taste of home

Members, employees team up with Yellow Ribbon Girls to send troops care packages

Pittsburgh, PA, July 26, 2019...(clearviewfcu.org) On Monday, July 15, 2019, Clearview partnered with Yellow Ribbon Girls delivered 37 boxes of donations for deployed troops. The boxes included personal products, supplies, treats and cards. Four of the boxes delivered were special requests from troops deployed from the Greater Pittsburgh Area. Clearview also presented a check of over $3,000 along with donations.

The donations for the boxes were collected from employees and members from all of Clearview's financial centers. The check presented was comprised of money received from Clearview's online donation site, its Employee Summer Fun Ticket Raffle and the Second Quarter Deduct A Buck Giving Program. Yellow Ribbon Girls was chosen to receive the monetary donation by a randomly chosen Clearview employee and participant in the Deduct A Buck program, Cheryl Snatchko.

The Yellow Ribbon Girls are headquartered in Western Pennsylvania and support deployed servicemen and servicewomen by sending packages and supplies from home to their military unit during their entire deployment. The Yellow Ribbon Girls along with volunteers have prepared and shipped over 38,000 packages to servicemen and servicewomen in 12 countries.
