Clearview celebrates 65th anniversary by giving back during 2018

Pittsburgh, PA, December 28, 2018.....(clearviewfcu.org) Clearview Federal Credit Union, a member-based credit union serving 10 Southwestern Pennsylvania counties, celebrated their 65th anniversary during 2018 by donating to five different charities and giving them 65 items each.

The North Hills Community Outreach Food Pantry, located in Allegheny County, received 65 cleaning supplies. North Hills Community Outreach operates three food pantries in the northern suburbs of Pittsburgh and provides food and necessities to nearly 700 families each month.

The Manna Soup Kitchen, which is located in Beaver County, received 65 hams. Manna Soup Kitchen is a program within the House of Prayer Lutheran Church that provides free meals to those in need every Tuesday night. Clearview donated enough hams so that every family was able to receive a ham. There were enough hams leftover from the donation for additional families to enjoy the following week.

The Chartiers Center in Allegheny County received 65 pillows, which were donated to those that were previously homeless and are now transitioning to housing. The Chartiers Center provides support to those in need who are facing behavioral health, co-occurring disorders, and IDD challenges as they transform their lives.

Our Kids Kloset in Washington County received 65 school supplies. Our Kids Kloset was started years ago in Trinity School District and works diligently to distribute free donated clothing and other supplies to children in need in Washington, Pa.

The Mars Home for Youth (MHY) located in Butler County received 65 pool and summer supplies. MHY offers a therapeutic campus environment, individualized education programs, and community services, where learning and healing occur for youth and families.

“Clearview had a great year in 2018, impacting our community through many ways. We celebrated our 65th anniversary, and to commemorate the year, we helped our neighbors, friends, and members with outreach that had true significance. Everyone at Clearview takes pride in making a difference and being an integral part of the Southwestern Pennsylvania region we serve. The Clearview family looks forward to continuing to make a difference in the community in 2019,” said Ron Celaschi, President and CEO at Clearview.
