Clearview, Wild Things present Baseball for All

Clearview FCU sponsors pastime event for athletes of all abilities

Pittsburgh, PA, July 1, 2019...clearviewfcu.org On Friday, June 28, 2019, Special Olympians, their families, and guests took in a great night of baseball at the “Baseball For All” event at Wild Things Park in Washington, Pa., sponsored by Clearview FCU. Over 80 Special Olympians from the area were treated to an autograph session by Pittsburgh Steelers star Roosevelt Nix, complimentary tickets, and more. A $250 cash donation to the Special Olympics of Washington County was also presented on the field before the first pitch.

In addition to the pregame festivities, all fans enjoyed the Friday Fireworks also sponsored by Clearview. Guests in attendance also enjoyed meeting members of the Clearview team for games and prizes.
