Ten Local Students Receive Scholarships from Clearview FCU

Pittsburgh, Pa. — Clearview Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce the winners of their 18th Annual Ralph B. Canterbury Scholarship. Each of the following winners was awarded a $1,000 scholarship to use toward their college education and received recognition Saturday at Clearview’s Annual Meeting:

- Julie Chen, North Allegheny High School
- Erin Confortini, Jefferson-Morgan High School
- Daniel Craft, Mt. Lebanon High School
- Janie deBrucky, Moon Area High School
- Abigail Ficca, Burrell High School
- Keefer Gregoire, Knoch High School
- Kaitlin Morrison, Moon Area High School
- Kate Nicholl, Bentworth High School
- Alexis Scelp, Western Beaver High School
- Claire Staresinic, Mars Area High School

The scholarship is in honor of Ralph B. Canterbury’s outstanding service and loyalty to the Credit Union during his 34-year tenure. Applicants were judged based on a number of criteria including: academic performance, community involvement, a statement of personal goals and an essay on “Why I chose to belong to Clearview.”

Clearview Federal Credit Union has been in operation since 1953 and serves nearly 99,000 members with reported assets valued over $1.1 billion as of May 2017. Membership in Clearview is open to individuals who live, work, worship, volunteer or attend school in the Southwestern Pennsylvania community, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland counties. Membership is also open to immediate family members of current Clearview members. Visit clearviewfcu.org for more information.
