Ten Local Students Receive Scholarships from Clearview FCU

Pittsburgh, Pa. — Clearview Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce the winners of their 19th Annual Ralph B. Canterbury Scholarship. Each of the following winners was awarded a $1,500 scholarship to use toward their college education and received recognition Thursday at Clearview’s Annual Meeting:

- Ryan Ahearn of Pine Richland High School
- Madeline Bailey of Hampton High School
- Tori Brennen of West Allegheny High School
- Piper Kimble of Cornell High School
- Mitchell McGowan of Kiski Area High School
- Aakriti Neopaney of Baldwin High School
- Matthew Spangler of Moon Area High School
- Ashley Tasz of Burgettstown High School
- Christopher Woessner of Bentworth High School
- Emily Zeanchock of Quaker Valley High School

The scholarship is in honor of Ralph B. Canterbury’s outstanding service and loyalty to the Credit Union during his 34-year tenure. Applicants were judged based on a number of criteria, including: academic performance, community involvement, a statement of personal goals, and an essay on “Why I chose to belong to Clearview.”

Clearview Federal Credit Union has been in operation since 1953 and serves over 100,000 members, with reported assets valued over $1.2 billion as of April 2018. Membership in Clearview is open to individuals who live, work, worship, volunteer or attend school in the Southwestern Pennsylvania community, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland counties. Membership is also open to immediate family members of current Clearview members. Visit clearviewfcu.org for more information.
